

SUPERVISORY SKILLS TRAINING

SBL Khas
Claimable

ABOUT US

This training course provides participants with strategies for effective supervision, the skills and knowledge required to lead a team or group work in a business environment. This training course includes developing plans, providing leadership and supervising the performance of a team work. You will learn how to use a relationship-based management process that support achieving improved business results.

Course Objectives

- To understand how attitude affects the personal productivity of employees.
- Practice sharing power, resulting in power becoming a multiplies within the company.
- Can use a relationship-based management process that supports achieving improved business results.
- Can recognize how the behaviours of effective managers help with the achievement of effective business profile.